Listo...Listos...Ya!

Ready...Set...Go!

The date is set, the tickets are booked, the suitcases have been extracted from their storage location and dusted off. On the 17th July 2014 the Sanders Family will depart from Australia, bound for Bolivia!

Destination: Tarija

Pronounced "Tar" (with a rolled "r" thanks) "Ree" Ha".

We are now in the midst of packing, finishing up at school, organising VISAs and various documents and practicalities, and of course trying to fit in as many farewell coffee's, dinners and catch-ups as we can!

We will arrive in Tarija 7-8 days after leaving Australia, after a short stop-over in Santiago Chile, and some Orientation training in Sucre Bolivia on our way through.

We are almost at full financial support (yay!). Thank you to all who have helped in making this happen - we couldn't do this without you.

We do need to reach our full support level before flying out, if you can assist us we would be extremely grateful. Please contact Pioneers Australia to make arrangements for your one-off donation or regular pledge. Thank you.

THE SANDERS FAMILY:

Volunteering in Bolivia, South America (through Pioneers Australia). Living among the Quechua people of the Andes mountains. BEN: Illustrating for the Tarpuy children's curriculum project. This desperately needed resource is the first of its kind developed in this part of the world. JUELZ: Seeking to use her experience working with women who are victims of family violence. RUBY & MAX: Mixing with children their own age at a Spanish-speaking local school.
